

December 6, 2018

Music

Lin March

Music. I'm listening to it right now. Music has always been part of my life. When I was a kid someone told me that if blood didn't run in my veins, music would. Oh, how true! I listen to it through the night. I wake up to music and go to sleep with it. Without thinking I'll even try to dance to it. When I get overwhelmed, I look for music.

I love Christmas music. It is so joyful and peaceful. Thank goodness for tablets. I always carry one. When I want to hear music, I take my tablet out and listen to it. The 70s are my favorite. So sometimes when you are just thinking, listen to music and reminisce.