DISCOVERY FOR KIDS

Children ages 3 to 12 can have fun in discovering God everywhere through a variety of activities. This Discovery time takes place on Sunday mornings at 10:15am-11 am, beginning in room 6 and with weather permitting, moving outdoors to discover God everywhere.

CAMP E.D.G.E. UPDATE

We had over 100 students attend our Hillview-King of Glory Lutheran Vacation Bible School! The children experienced and discovered God everywhere during the week at Bible story time, recreation, snacks, crafts, music and science centers.

Many thank yous to all who participated as counselors, registration, decorations, donations, set-up and clean-up and prayers.

Did You Know—that you can contact your bank and have them send a check to Hillview as often as you specify (week, month, etc.), in the amount that you specify, and you don't have to worry about remembering to write a check?

The service is free and the bank will notify you in your monthly bank statement and/or they will email you when it is done.

Contact your bank. It is easy to setup.

Several have found that this works great!

Corpus Christi News June 2009

I want to thank everyone that continues to bring contributions for Corpus Christi. There has become a greater need over the last several months due to the poor economy. We are serving a lot more people and the food contributions also have dropped off. We try to serve a breakfast and an afternoon meal every day. Some days we do not have anything more than bread and margarine to serve. I want to give you an idea of a partial grocery list that we purchase from Winco every few days.

- 12 cans of coffee ($5.48 ea.)
- 5 boxes of tea ($1.26 ea.)
- 12 boxes of cereal ($2.66 ea.)
- 12 gal. Of milk ($1.98 ea.)
- 4 Sugar ($3.45 ea.)
- 6 Creamer ($3.00 ea.)
- 2 Laundry Detergent ($9.48 ea.)
- 6 Bleach ($1.38 ea.)
- 2 Liquid Dish soap ($.88 ea.)

As you can see we hope for donations to serve the afternoon meal. Most weeks people donate bread and eggs. We have been blessed by several people from Hillview that have placed food items in our collection box. We also have been very grateful for leftovers from our pot lucks and the Community Meals.

Other needs are long distance phone cards and of course the usual needs of bathe soap, shampoo, conditioner, tooth paste, tooth brushes, and disposable razors. We continue to accept used clothing and prefer new underwear and socks. There is such a need and I want to personally thank you for all you do.

God bless you.
Jan Gross

ALL MEANS ALL

At The United Methodist General Conference 2008, an amendment to the United Methodist constitution was passed that has the opportunity to make our denomination more inclusive, in policy and practice. The proposed amendment emphasizes the wideness of God's mercy and the availability of the ministry of the church to all. That amendment must now be ratified by a two-thirds majority of the total votes taken at Annual Conferences of all United Methodists. The Oregon-Idaho Annual Conference, meeting in Salem in June, voted to ratify that amendment. This proposed amendment is as follows (words added are in bold and deleted words have a strike-out through them):

In the 2004 Book of Discipline, Division One, ¶ 4, Article IV, (2008 Book of Discipline, Division One, ¶ 4, Article IV)

*Inclusiveness of the Church — The United Methodist Church is a part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth and that we are in ministry to all. All persons [without regard to race, color, national origin, status or economic condition] who seek relationship in Jesus Christ shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and, upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection. In the United Methodist Church no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body [of the Church because of race, color, national origin, status or economic condition.]

"Dad, how come when Jesus gave His
'Sermon on the Mound'
He doesn't even mention baseball?"

"David, Dave, Davie, how do you feel about product endorsements?"

Thank You!

I thank you all sincerely for the "pounding" I found as I entered my new house. The food, flowers, gift cards and good wishes of all sorts made my house instantly my home. You have made me feel very welcome... Barbara

Attention Crafters

Holiday bazaars are so much fun!

We will be having one in November right here at Hillview and we need your help! Crocheters and knitters get those hooks and needles moving—hats and scarves and dish cloths are always popular. Beaders—necklaces, bracelets, Christmas ornaments would be welcome. Woodworkers—toys, shelves and decorative items are just a few ideas. If you would be interested in helping Claudia organize this event (or if you would like to volunteer to help) please give her a call at the church office 375-0392.

JULY COMMUNITY MEAL

- * Wednesday, July 22
- * 6:00 – 7:30 PM
- * Outside BBQ (as weather permits!)
- * Bring a salad or dessert to share

The ice chest will be out at the sanctuary doors on the 21st for anyone who would like to help fund this ministry.

Thanks to everyone who helps with this community outreach.

NEW SUMMER STUDY OPPORTUNITY OFFERED

The evening spiritual growth group (Living the Questions) will begin a short-term book study on Tuesday, July 14th at 7:00 p.m. and concluding on September 1st. The book, Jesus Wants to Save Christians: A Manifesto for the Church in Exile by Rob Bell and Don Golden is a prophetic exhortation rehearsing our story of exile and liberation. It challenges us Christians of the twenty-first century, living in the most powerful nation in history, to a new way of thinking and being church. Everyone is welcome to participate, and older youth will find the style of the book appealing as well as challenging.

The book may be ordered online from Barnes and Noble and Amazon and is available at local bookstores. For more information about the class or ordering a book, please contact Gayle Woods (938-5964 or gaylewoods5964@msn.com). Also, please let Gayle know if you are planning to participate, and plan to read the introduction and chapter one before the first evening.

THANKS FOR HELPING TO CHANGE HUNGER FAST

Again this year Hillview participated in the Change Hunger Fast offering for the Bishop's Initiative to Eliminate Hunger Grant Fund. Throughout May, many of you collected loose (and not so loose) change for this important ministry. Because of your generous support, we were able to add our contribution of just over $600 to that of other United Methodists in Oregon and Idaho. Together, we added $11,639 to resources available for ministries to educate congregations, work for justice and feed people. THANK YOU!

Red Robin Hosts Foodbank Mondays

Got a craving for a burger? A really good burger? If so, Red Robin has a new program you need to know about. Every Monday through July 27, Treasure Valley Red Robin restaurants will donate 50 cents to The Idaho Foodbank for every gourmet burger sold.

What a great way to treat yourself, your family and help feed your hungry Idaho neighbors at the same time.

Participating Red Robins can be found in Meridian at 1475 N. Eagle Rd., in Nampa at 2222 Cassia Street, and in Boise at 211 W. ParkCenter Blvd. and at 267 N. Milwaukee near the Towne Square mall.

Remember, every gourmet burger you buy will enable us to supply more than enough food for one full meal to a hungry Idaho family.

When you realize 50 cents will supply more than one full meal, think what \$5 will do...

Random Musings

The moving van arrived in Junction City and they carefully and neatly loaded all of the boxes from my home-my office at church-my life onto the truck. It had taken weeks to organize and pack up for this moment. Two days later, I met the van in Meridian, Idaho and the movers proceeded to unload all the boxes into my house on Apricot Drive. It seems like I have been unpacking and puttering ever since...

Frankly, unpacking is much more fun and interesting. I open one box and seem to discover its contents as new all over again. I open another box and wonder why on earth I ever purchased this or that, let alone packed it up to bring here. I open another and place the items where I think they belong, only to find myself trying them out in different locations or arrangements where they seem much better. Unpacking offers a fresh perspective on the stuff we have lived with and carried around all the time. Unpacking is a good thing.

I want to offer "unpacking" as a way for us to think about our lives as followers of Jesus. As I begin my work as your pastor, I think you should know that I find unpacking our faith to be not only fun & interesting but absolutely essential to church life and personal growth. What truths about God and which teachings of Jesus sustain us every time we engage them? What beliefs and ideas have we carried around all our lives without examining them? Can we/ should we let go of some of these? What values and priorities do we lift up as we unpack our faith and examine it in THIS time and place?

In truth, I am almost through unpacking and moving into my new life here at Hillview. But the meaningful work I hope we do together, well-- that is just beginning and on-going. May God be with us as we think outside our many boxes...

Pastor Barbara
